"I could have used three tongues one Sunday in Taipei—English, Chinese and Taiwanese, as it took two interpreters to convey my message to the people."

"On that same journey I could have used the ability to speak in tongues that many claim to possess. I needed Japanese, Korean, Tagalog, Thul, German, French, Swiss, Italian, Arabic, Greek and Hebrew. Of course, I'm supposed to be able to read the latter two, but certainly I cannot speak them.

"Wouldn't it be grand to see God lift the barrier of language for his people?"

"As it is, a thousand tongues are singing the praises of our God in far-flung lands around this huge globe."
